Scores of Ohio Fees Going Up

New County Collection Schedule Given Nod

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Scores of fees charged for services performed by county officials will soon—some as much as 400 per cent—be increased, according to a new schedule of fees given nod by the state legislature.

The increases, uniform across the state, are estimated to total five million dollars a year. They are authorized in an act of the legislature now awaiting Gov. Michael V. DiSalle's signature.

Many of the fees have remained on the lawbooks unchanged for 70 years.

Here are some examples of the old and new rates to be charged those who use the services of county officials:

Sheriff—for making a levy on goods and chattels, up from $2.50 to $10.

Writ of attachment, from $2.50 to $5.

Warrant to arrest, each person named in the writ, from $1 to $2.

Copy of indictment, each defendant, from 50 cents to $1.

Recorder — Recording assignment or satisfaction of mortgage or lease or any other marginal entry, from 25 to 50 cents.

Photocopy of instruments previously recorded, from 70 cents to $1 per page.

Auditor—deeds for land sold for taxes, from $1 to $5.

Transfer of land or lot, from 10 cents to 50 cents.

Clerk of courts — A blanket charge of $7.50 for each case the office handles. Presently there is a multiplicity of minor charges for each step as the case progresses through a court.

Certificate of divorce of annulment, from 15 cents to $1.

Strong gusty winds swept through Pickaway County around noon today, ripping up a few trees and causing slight damage to shrubbery.

These same winds are expected to sweep the county throughout the afternoon and evening. The rainy weather experienced this morning should clear up this afternoon and Saturday is expected to be cloudy and mild.

A total of 0.79 inches of rain greeted the month of April and presently the county is 0.35 inches ahead of the monthly average, though trailing the yearly average by 0.11 inches.

March turned out to be a dry month as it ended 2.13 inches behind the monthly average. Heaviest precipitation came on March 11 with 0.68 inches of snow, to deposit nearly seven inches of snowfall on the ground.

DiSalle Tells Aides Resist Pressures

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Gov. Michael V. DiSalle today warned members of his Cabinet to resist pressures that might divert them from their official duties.

He made the admonition at his weekly Cabinet meeting.

The governor appeared irritated over activities of a Senate committee in connection with his investigation of commercialized gambling in at least two sections of the state.

Liquor Director Richard C. Crouch was kept waiting several hours outside a closed caucus of Democrat senators considering a resolution critical of the activities of liquor agents.

The resolution was drafted by Sen. Arthur Blake (D-Belmont) who claimed the agents were snooping on other state officials under a guise of looking for gamblers. Reports indicated the resolution will be revised.

DiSalle cited the Crouch episode as an example of the kind of pressure that could be expected during legislative sessions.

"In a department as sensitive as the Liquor Department," the governor said, "there always are some people hanging around wanting one thing or another. Everytime we move to try to tighten up we will get more and more pressures. In those departments where we buy and sell things, there is a lot of activity."

Reports from several departments showed that about 450 employees have been notified of the law requiring their retirement because they have reached 70.

Welfare Director Mary Gorman reported that payrolls have been cut $15,721 so far this year and indicated that further savings were expected. She said the savings were at the rate of $188,671 a year.

The governor said he will continue to press for enactment of his "conflict of interests" measure pending in the legislature despite apparent lack of enthusiasm for it. Among other things, the measure would prevent public officials from receiving compensation from any outside source.

London Says Be War-Ready If Talks Fail

Tougher Policy Seen Formed by Allies on Negotiation Setup

LONDON (AP)—Responsible British authorities said today if the forthcoming East-West foreign ministers conference fails, the West must be ready should war come.

The British believe the West now is confronted with these choices—continued cold war tension, or a solid attempt to end or reduce this tension.

British sources point out that a continuance of the cold war will carry a grave risk of war by miscalculation.

Officials said that is why Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd, in Washington talks, argued strongly for negotiations which offered promise of reducing East-West tension.

But Britain is firmly committed to the idea that West Berlin must continue free and, along with its Allies, is prepared to make heavy sacrifices and take risks to preserve the city's freedom.

And in Washington, the Western powers appeared today to be toughening their policy on negotiations with the Soviet Union over the Berlin crisis.

The NATO foreign ministers meeting went into its second day here, the United States, Britain and France were reported shelving some proposals which could be construed as offering possible concessions to the Soviets.

The United States, meanwhile, pledged anew the full use of its nuclear missile and bomber striking force in defense of Western Europe and North America if military action ever became necessary.

Acting Secretary of State Christian Herter told the 15-nation Foreign Ministers Council today Thursday that U.S. power today is greater than it has ever been. He declared that this country is now making faster progress in the development of missiles than is the Soviet Union.

"I pledge our continued willingness," Herter solemnly told the allied leaders, "to make the necessary effort for the common defense."

"I pledge also full willingness to use our strength in the common defense if need be."

West German Foreign Minister Heinrich von Brentano was scheduled to lead off today's debate on the Berlin crisis and the development of Western policy for dealing with it. The debate opened Thursday after President Eisenhower's morning address in which he declared that NATO must be prepared to carry on for years in a world of continued "tension and bickering" between the free nations and the Soviets.

The Western Big Three are seeking support from the general NATO Council on the whole policy lines which they have so far developed for negotiations with the Soviet Union at a foreign ministers meeting beginning in Geneva May 11 on the problem of Germany and the specific crisis over Berlin.

Britain has been reported as favoring a softer approach to the Geneva negotiations than the United States and France. West Germany is known to advocate a hardboiled strategy, reserving any concessions until a late stage and avoiding any evidence of willingness to pay a price to get the U.S.S.R. to ease up on Berlin.

Skidding Auto Hits Car, Fence, Tree

Adell S. Hartway, 47, Stuttgart, Ark., narrowly escaped fatal injuries when his auto crashed into another car, struck a picket fence and then smashed into a tree in the vicinity of Main and Mingo Sts. at 4:17 p. m. yesterday.

Hartway, discharged from the armed forces this week, was listed in "fairly good" condition today at Berger Hospital. He suffered chest injuries, lacerations of the head and face and a possible broken arm.

Hartway's auto, traveling toward Circleville on the Lancaster Pike, smashed into a car driven by Maynard E. Millet, 32, Route 1, Stoutsville, who was on his way to work. Millet fortunately escaped with minor lacerations.

According to City Patrolman Donald Adams, Hartway's car zoomed across the Main-Mingo intersection and plowed into Millet's auto which was on Mingo St. waiting for the traffic light to change. The patrolman said the Hartway car bounced off the other vehicle, skidded onto a sidewalk on the west side of Mingo St., ripped into a picket fence and finally came to a halt when it smashed into a tree.

Millet said he observed Hartway's car, coming at a high rate of speed, pass another auto waiting for the traffic light on Lancaster Pike. He said the careening vehicle crossed the intersection, smashed into his car and continued on.

Hartway, apparently on his way home from the service, told Patrolman Adams that the accelerator on his car seemed to stick and that his brakes wouldn't work. The 1959 model auto had only about 700 miles on the speedometer, Adams said.

The damaged sidewalk, fence and tree are at the home of Milton Leist, 115 Mingo St. Witnesses said the skidding vehicle almost struck a paper boy who was near the intersection at the time.

Patrolman Adams, noting that Hartway was fortunate in escaping fatal injuries, said skid marks from the crashing auto measured 200 feet. Both autos involved were demolished, he added.

Judge Labels Lancasterite As 'Menace'

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—"I think you're a menace to society," Federal Judge Mell G. Underwood told 51-year-old Eddie Larabee today. Then he sentenced Larabee to five years in prison.

Larabee, who said he was paroled from prison 13 months ago after serving time on his third conviction, pleaded guilty to stealing, forging and cashing a $75 government check. His previous convictions were not detailed.

Judge Underwood sentenced Larabee to five years on each of the three check counts. The sentences run concurrently.

Two other Lancaster men, Russell Kost 53, and Clarence P. (Bus) Straits, 46, of the H&E Quick Lunch, pleaded guilty to failure to file required tax returns on wages. Judge Underwood ordered a probation investigation for both.

Innocent pleas were entered by four men picked up in the same series of February raids by federal revenue agents.

Theodore M. (Red) Bailey, 29; Charles E. Shumaker, 39; Roger S. Neff, 49, and Roy C. (Bea) Knotts, 57, all of Lancaster, were continued under $1,000 bond each for trial Tuesday at 10 a. m. on waiving tax evasion charges.

Mail carrier Robert C. Miller, 38, of Lancaster, was given three years' probation after pleading guilty to taking three envelopes, each containing small sums of money, from the mails.

Three years' probation also was given Mrs. Eunice Juanita Bland, 21, of Chillicothe, and Ronald L. Makin, 22, of Athens and Chillicothe. They were charged with splitting two $10 bills and two $1 bills, then pasting the halves together in an attempt to pass them as four $10 bills.

Utility Strike Talks Remain Deadlocked

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—After 12 hours of negotiations—six in joint session—union and management representatives broke up contract talks Thursday night in another fruitless attempt to end the month-long strike against Columbus & Southern Ohio Electric Co. Negotiations resume today.

About 1,300 members of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers Union are involved in the strike.

The department relied on sufficiency ratings (if a road is in good shape to handle capacity traffic, it could get a rating up to 100, but the lower the rating, the greater the indicated need for improvements), reports of frequent accidents in some locations, and the need to close gaps in the interstate system, Preston explains.

Ohio 1, the Cincinnati-to-Cincinnati Freeway, may open to traffic from Cincinnati to Painesville and between Columbus and Medina late this year, the department says. Interstate routes getting immediate (that is, contracts already let or to be let between now and June, where possible) priority for bid letting are:

Castro To Seek Loans in America

HAVANA (AP)—Prime Minister Fidel Castro says he will be looking for money as well as defending "Cuba and her revolution" on his visit to the United States later this month.

The banded revolutionary told a TV audience Thursday night that he will seek loans from the U.S. Export-Import Bank and "all sources of credit possible."

The Batista government left only 70 million dollars in the treasury, Castro said, adding that Cuba's economic situation was further aggravated by falling sugar prices and increased competition from other sugar countries.

Debbie Makes Liz and Eddie Very Happy

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP) — An ecstatic Elizabeth Taylor and Eddie Fisher today made plans for a private wedding that will take place probably May 11.

"No one will know about it until it's over," the joyful actress told a reporter Thursday night.

"We are both very grateful to Debbie."

She was referring to Debbie Reynolds, Fisher's wife, who announced Thursday she would not oppose Fisher's desire to get a quickie Nevada divorce so that he could marry Miss Taylor.

"I wish Liz and Eddie happiness," Debbie said as she arrived in Los Angeles after a transpolar flight from a movie location in Spain.

The news made Liz and Eddie so happy that they literally jumped for joy. A reporter told them of Debbie's statement while the two were at the $500-a-week dude ranch that Mr. Taylor rents while Fisher performs nearby at the Tropicana Hotel.

"Liz is flipping," said Fisher. "She's jumping all over the room. I'm grateful that Debbie did this."

Debbie got a California decree in February from Fisher but it will not be final for a year. As a result Liz and Eddie cannot live in California as man and wife until February 1960. Otherwise Fisher would be subject to prosecution for bigamy in that state.

Michigan Eyes Liquor Imports

LANSING, Mich. (AP)—A bill to clamp down on illegal liquor imports across Michigan's southern border landed back in the Senate Judiciary Committee for overhaul today.

Senators were told state liquor sales were down 16 million dollars last year, partly due to people sneaking whisky in from Ohio, Indiana and Illinois, where prices are lower.

The bill would allow state police and state investigators to stop and search cars suspected of transporting liquor illegally without first obtaining a search warrant.

Statement Challenged

Kenneth Shepherd, Route 1, chairman of the Pickaway County Welfare Board, today stated that the Children's Home has overspent its appropriations since 1955. This is contrary to a Pickaway County Commissioner's statement that the Children's Home has spent more than its appropriations for the past 10 years.

EASTER EGG HUNTERS — Pictured above are three participants of the Circleville Kiwanis Easter Egg Hunt held Saturday in Ted Lewis Park. They were among the nearly 500 children who scoured the park for the more than 1,500 eggs hidden by Kiwanians earlier that day. This was the third year in a row that the local Kiwanis Club has sponsored this event. ## Alcorn Books Powwow with Sen. Morton

WASHINGTON (AP) — Meade Alcorn, retiring Republican national chairman, confers today with the man regarded as his most likely successor—Sen. Thorton B. Morton of Kentucky.

Morton flew here Thursday night from his home in Louisville but didn't discuss the matter beyond saying he had been approached by some Republicans on the chairmanship.

"I have been reading about myself in the newspapers back home," he said, "and I thought I would come here to see what it is all about."

Alcorn, national chairman for two years, announced this week that he is resigning effective next weekend when the GOP National Committee meets here to pick the site and date of the 1960 Republican convention. He said he wants to return to his Hartford, Conn., law practice.

At a site screening meeting Thursday, Chicago increased its bid for next year's GOP convention to more than $500,000.

Philadelphia is offering $475,000 in cash, plus fringe benefits, and New York is offering $400,000 plus benefits.

Chicago's new offer is $400,000 cash plus proceeds from a convention program estimated at $100,000 and free convention hall rental.

Police Applicants Are Disqualified

Three applicants scheduled to take examinations this week to fill an eligible list on the Circleville Police Force have been disqualified, according to the local department.

Police spokesmen said the three applicants failed to meet all requirements of the examination. One of the applicants was not a resident of Pickaway County.

Another exam probably will be scheduled in the near future.

Railroad Warning Bell Fails To Help Victim

SAN BERNARDINO, Calif. (AP) — The warning bell was clanging as George Dewey Roundtree walked toward the railroad crossing.

But he kept on walking and was killed.

Witnesses heard the bell and saw a Southern Pacific passenger train strike the 60-year-old man and hurl him into the air.

Why didn't he stop? Investigators said he was deaf.

DuPont Lists Job Upgrades For Three Men

Three employees at the local DuPont plant have been awarded job advancements, according to company officials.

Receiving the upgrading in job positions are Carroll L. Cook, George L. Brown and Robert M. Christy, all veteran DuPont employees.

Cook joined DuPont on Jan. 31, 1956, working as a mechanic until his new assignment as a works engineering foreman. He has taken correspondence courses in electronics.

Brown has been with DuPont since the plant opened here in 1954. He had previous experience in DuPont construction.

Christy, 30, his wife, Mary Anne, and children, Curtis, 8, and Kevin, 4, live at 912 Lincoln Drive. He was born in Garrison, Ky., and graduated from Vanceburg High School in Kentucky in 1947.

The DuPont employee, currently studying a course in electronics at Franklin University in Columbus, served in the U. S. Navy from 1947-51. He has been with the local plant since 1953.

GE Supports Annexation Move Despite Big Boost in Taxes

"The General Electric Circleville Lamp Plant supports the proposed annexation of territory, which includes this plant, in the city because GE believes in the future and growth of Circleville." That was the statement today of E. G. Grigg, local plant manager.

If the annexation goes through the GE share of additional taxes will mean approximately $39,235 to the city.

GE's Pickaway County tax rate is presently 19.75 mills as a part of Circleville Twp. Its rates will jump an additional 5.10 mills of Circleville general and bond fund millage on its taxable value of $769,320, according to County Auditor Mrs. Marvin H. Rhoades.

Circleville's general fund millage is 4.9 mills and its bond fund gets 0.2 mills. An annexation of the proposed 337.98 acres of Circleville Twp. to the city will mean no loss of revenue to the county or township general funds.

THESE FUNDS will continue to get their present share of taxes with the annexation. The additional taxes for Circleville will come

Fisherman Arrested; He Holds Own Court

THERMOPOLIS, Wyo. (AP) — When Game Warden Jack Reavis found four men fishing in a restricted area, justice was on the scene.

One of the four called court into session on the river bank and fined himself and the other three $10 each. Then he suspended the fine on promise of good behavior.

The one angler, Reavis said, was Justice of the Peace F. L. Welch.

MESA, Ariz. (AP)—A woman's attempt to shoo away a wasp while driving resulted in a collision with a school bus and the death of her daughter Thursday.

None of the 70 junior high school students on the bus was hurt. Patrolman Carroll Bollinger said that as Alice M. Flaherty, 34, tried to ward off the wasp, her car plowed head-on into the bus.

Viola Pearl Gibson, 16, died of injuries in a Mesa hospital. Mrs. Flaherty and another daughter, Shirley Ann Gibson, 13, were hospitalized with fractures.

Samuel as Judge

HE LED HIS PEOPLE TO A SPIRITUAL REVIVAL AND THE DEFEAT OF THEIR ENEMIES

Scripture—I Samuel 3:19-21; 6; 7.

By NEWMAN CAMPBELL
THE CHILD Samuel grew to manhood, and his people knew that he "was established to be a prophet of the Lord."—I Samuel 3:20.

If any in the class does not remember about Samuel from previous lessons, the teacher should explain that he was the son of Hannah and Elkanah, who had been childless until Hannah prayed to God to send her a child.
After Samuel was born, in grate-tude she dedicated him to the service of God and took him to Eli, the high priest of Shiloh, to be trained for his work.

"And Samuel grew, and the Lord was with him, and did let none of his words fall to the ground."—Samuel 3:19.
Samuel married and had two sons, Joel and Abiah, the names meaning "Jehovah is God and Jehovah is my Father," according to Dr. Wilbur M. Smith's commentaries in Peloubet's Select Notes.

The Ark of the Lord had been captured by the men of Bethshemesh (the Philistines) who repented of their deed and sent word to the inhabitants of Kir-jath-jearim to get it and take it again to the Israelites.—I Samuel 6:21.

Samuel "spoke unto all the house of Israel, saying, If ye do return unto the Lord with all your hearts, then put away the strange gods and Ashteroth (identical with the Greek Astarte) among you, and prepare your hearts unto the Lord, and serve Him only; and He will deliver you out of the hand of the Philistines. Then the children of Israel did put away Baalim and Ashteroth, and served God only."
—I Samuel 7:3-4.

Samuel gathered all Israel to Mizpeh, which has been identified as the place now called Neby, five miles northwest of Jerusalem. It is often visited by tourists to the Holy Land.

"And they gathered together to Mizpeh, and drew water, and poured it out before the Lord, and fasted on that day, and said there, 'We have sinned against the Lord.' And Samuel judged the children of Israel in Mizpeh."—I Samuel 7:6.

The enemies of Israel, the Philistines, heard they were gathered in Mizpeh, so they attacked them. The people cried to Samuel to pray that God would save them. Samuel made a sacrifice to the Lord while the Philistines drew near in battle and "the Lord thundered with a great thunder on that day upon the Philistines, and discomfited them; and they were smitten before Israel."—I Samuel 7:10.

"So the Philistines were subdued, and they came no more into the coast of Israel; and the hand of the Lord was against the Philistines all the days of Samuel."—I Samuel 7:13.
Today in the civilized world we do not bow down and worship idols. But do not men and women have their own idols which they sometimes cherish instead of worshipping God only? Sometimes it is money. Sometimes it is social position or prominence in the political world. Whatever it is, let us turn to God for guidance and worship above all else.

Most of the children in the classes know what a religious revival is, such as Samuel held to turn his people back to God. Many earnest Christian men and women hold them today, preaching the gospel of Christ in revival meetings and over the radio.

The classes, both the young and older, might be led to a discussion of wise men of our own generation who might be called prophets. They would probably agree that while we have many fine leaders, none could compare with Samuel in his wise judgment of Israel.

What seems to be the basic situation now?

State Division of water Chief C.
V. Youngquist or one of his staff will tell you the story about the Texan who was seen rowing
across a flooded street.

He was, they'll explain, on his way to collect his government
drought disaster check.

They don't tell that story for laughs, but to explain Ohio's situation. As S. L. (Jack) Frost, assistant division chief, wrote in a recent issue of the Natural Resources Department's conservation
bulletin:

"The plight of this farmer is the same as the water problems facing us here in Ohio. There is too little or too much water at the wrong times."

As far as natural resources Director Herbert B. Eagon is concerned, "It's 'the most vital problem facing the state today—maintaining an abundant supply of usable water for domestic, agricultural, industrial and recreational uses."

Ohio uses 11 to 12 billion gallons of water a day, about enough to fill a tank car train extending halfway around the earth. This is expected to increase to about 24 billion in 40 years, but even that is slightly less than a third of the av-

Water Problems Begin To Worry State Officials

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Ohio's water problems are causing considerable concern at the state level.

The January floods underscored some suggestions made in December for dealing with the situation.

After 13 months of study, a special Water Survey Committee appointed by former Gov. C. William O'Neill made its report four months ago, and had these recommendations for the Legislature:

1. Establish an Ohio water commission to replace the Water Resources Board and its advisory committee. State Sen. Danny D.
Johnson (D-New Philadelphia) has introduced a bill creating such a commission. It is under administration study.

2. Provide the money to allow quick completion of water inventories at Ohio's 18 major watersheds. Gov. Michael V. DiSalle recommended in his budget address that an additional $400,000 be channeled into the long range inventory program, and he reportedly is considering a special message to the Legislature on the situation.

3. Adopt policies providing for development and management of water resources, construction and operation of water storage facilities, and encourage political subdivisions to cooperate in water management on a watershed basis.

What seems to be the basic situation now?

State Division of water Chief C.
V. Youngquist or one of his staff
will tell you the story about the Texan who was seen rowing
across a flooded street.

He was, they'll explain, on his
way to collect his government
drought disaster check.

They don't tell that story for laughs, but to explain Ohio's situation. As S. L. (Jack) Frost, assistant division chief, wrote in a recent issue of the Natural Resources Department's conservation
bulletin:

"The plight of this farmer is the same as the water problems facing us here in Ohio. There is too little or too much water at the wrong times."

As far as natural resources Director Herbert B. Eagon is concerned, "It's 'the most vital problem facing the state today—maintaining an abundant supply of usable water for domestic, agricultural, industrial and recreational
uses."

Ohio uses 11 to 12 billion gallons of water a day, about enough to fill a tank car train extending halfway around the earth. This is expected to increase to about 24 billion in 40 years, but even that is slightly less than a third of the av-

Sen. Kennedy On Vital Tour

Swing into Wisconsin
May Tell His Future

MILWAUKEE (AP)—Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass) swings into Wisconsin next week on a three-day speaking tour that may help him decide whether to pick the state for an early showdown in a bid for the 1960 Democratic presidential nomination.

Should Kennedy's visit stir up the enthusiasm his friends anticipate, he might elect to enter the Wisconsin presidential primary in April 1960. That could lead to a head-on collision with Sen. Hubert Humphrey of neighboring Minnesota.

At the outset, Kennedy accepted an invitation to address the annual Gridiron Dinner of the Milwaukee Press Club April 9. The visit now has taken on all the aspects of a campaign tour. His expanded itinerary calls for three days of speechmaking with public appearances in Milwaukee, Sheboygan, Beloit, Janesville, Appleton and Madison, plus the usual round of receptions, news conferences and radio and TV dates.

Kennedy's schedule was arranged by Pat Lucey, state Democratic chairman. On at least two occasions, Kennedy will be introduced by Wisconsin's Gov. Gaylord Nelson, the state's first Democratic governor in more than a quarter-century.

Although neither Kennedy nor Humphrey has committed himself to enter the Wisconsin primary, Nelson thinks they will elect to test their strength here. If they do, the governor says he will urge state party leaders to remain neutral.

Nelson says he believes that "the broadest support" still is for Adlai E. Stevenson, the party's nominee in 1952 and 1956.

Consumer Is Certainly VIP

Ever since the American economy shifted its emphasis from providing the bare necessities of life to supplying the things that most persons want but really could do without, the consumer has become a very important person. It has now become axiomatic that business prosperity or adversity depends on how the consumer spends his money and the velocity with which he lets it go.

That is why the consumer was the center of discussion at the annual convention of the National Retail Merchants Association in New York. The retailers are less worried than they were a year ago. General employment has increased, pay envelopes are fatter. There is much less fear of being laid off, so workers are more disposed to spend.

In fact, the merchants were told that department store sales this spring probably would show at least a 4 per cent increase over the 1958 season.

A fascinating development to come out of the merchants' meeting was the projection, by an investment banker who is also an authority on retailing, of the general economy into the next two decades. He placed U. S. population by 1983 at 280 million, an increase of 100 million.

By that time, he predicted, the public's disposable income will have soared to $700 billion, about double the present rate, and the gross national product, in terms of 1958 dollar purchasing power, to $1 trillion.

Thus there will be a transition from the Era of Billions into the Age of Trillions. The transition should not be more difficult for the human brain to comprehend than the fact that man has shot a rocket around the sun a hundred million miles into space.

Business Office -- a Circus

By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK (AP)—The greatest remaining indoor circus in America is the average business office.

It has more acts than Barnum and Bailey ever dreamed of. But one of the best sideshows is watching how the animals in the office zoo go about starting their daily circus routine.

Here are some typical star performers you can see in action in your own office practically every morning:

Alibi Ike—"The Doc told me I oughta stay in bed at least a couple more days," he says on arrival. This means he really is too sick to work, and no matter what goes wrong during the day you can't blame him as he is a real hero to be there at all.

The Quick Change Artist—This ambitious secretary gets to the office five minutes early so she can erase her ride-the-bus face and replace it with her greet-the-boss face. As soon as the boss is in his sanctum, she goes downstairs to the drugstore and spends a half hour at breakfast.

The Supreme Organizer—The initial problem of the boss is to decide which button to press among the row of buzzers on his desk. "Let me see," he muses, "who'll I scare first today?"

The Proud Grouch—He speaks to no one, but takes out pen and pad and starts figuring how many more months, days and hours he will have to spend in this wilderness of ineptitude before he can retire and start mingling with a better class of people.

The Guilty Innocent—Feverishly he sets about doing work he should have finished yesterday, and he hopes nobody will find him out. What he doesn't realize is that 9 out of 10 people in the office still are putting off the work they should have done the day before yesterday.

The Boy Wonder—This pink-cheeked junior executive fidgets until 9:03 a.m., then bursts in on the boss to brag about all the work he did at home the night before. The boss is impressed. He makes a mental note to fire the guy at the first opportunity—to safeguard his own job.

The Efficiency Expert—He strides briskly into his office, closes the door, then lies down and takes a three-hour nap. He feels perfectly safe. Nobody ever watches an efficiency expert. They figure he's always watching them.

The World Today

By James Marlow

WASHINGTON (AP) — Every once in a while a politician leaves this citadel of stuffy party platitudes after a career which makes you feel like saying: "Thanks for some cool air, for a change."

Meade Alcorn is such a one. With a few moments of frankness he denied, although the dent disappeared fast, the long tradition which seems to require political big-wigs to slam-bang the opposition only and never admit defeat beforehand.

Alcorn, 51, did his share of slam-banging before he resigned Wednesday as chairman of the Republican National Committee after more than 22 months of trying to steer his party down a victory road.

But it was his plain talk — months before the 1958 elections — that his party figured to lose which anguished some of his fellow-Republicans and astonished politicians of both parties.

Alcorn, a lawyer who is going back to his practice in Connecticut, looked over the prospects last April and announced to newsmen "it isn't in the cards" for the Republicans to win the Senate.

He thought his party might barely make it in the House. Among politicians this umbrella of gloom which Alcorn raised over his party's chances may have seemed unheard of, unnecessary, unprofessional and even unporting. It was certainly unheeded.

But it was realistic. And it was justified, for what seemed at the time like wild optimism from his opposite number, Paul Butler, chairman of the Democratic National Committee, turned out to be rather conservative.

Butler predicted the Democrats would win perhaps 12 seats from the Republicans in the Senate and 40 in the House. In the 1958 elections they actually took 13 Republican Senate seats and 47 in the House.

It was the biggest Democratic victory since early New Deal days.

But Alcorn gave his party another dose of jolting frankness last January when the Republican National Committee met in Des Moines to hold a wake over the 1958 disaster and plan for victory in 1960.

Alcorn told committee members they had better dream up a new look for the party or get set for another shellacking.

"Today," he said, "we are being out-voted, out-talked, out-spent and out-worked by an alert, disciplined, politically astute opposition."

"In politics you can't stand still. Either you go forward or you go backward. And it's high time for the Republican Party to shift gears. It's time we snatched off the big business false face that the Democrats placed on us years ago."

"It's time we erased the dollar sign they painted on our vest." Alcorn, like Butler on the other side of the fence, had no easy time trying to get Republicans to see eye-to-eye or work together.

Butler has to try to keep Southern Democratic conservatives running happily in the same harness with Northern liberals. Alcorn had the same task with the conservatives and liberals of his party.

Even if Alcorn made a policy of sweet-talk he couldn't have pleased everybody.

Highly conservative Rep. Clare Hoffman, Michigan Republican, was so outraged by Alcorn's selection to be the party's general in January 1957 that he reacted immediately with this statement:

"The conservative wing of the Republican party has been liquidated and is about to be buried."

Corliss Lamont Is Again on Tour

Lamont, 57, son of a J. P. Morgan partner, Thomas Lamont, is believed to be in southern France. He sailed on the French liner Liberté March 21.

Lamont sailed with his wife, Margaret, expecting to return in about five months, it was said.

The Lamonts reside in New York City. His activities include lecturing in philosophy at Columbia University.

Common Cold Costs Billions

By Herman N. Bundesen, M.D.

Get ready for your last cold of the season.

While many of you will have summer colds this year, the vast majority of the 500,000,000 colds we suffer annually occur between September and May.

Longest stretch, as a rule, is in January and February. And there often is a short—and sharp—peak in April.

Don't think you can take off for another section of the country and escape. You may contract a cold just as easily in Florida or California as in Illinois or Maine.

If it is any comfort, you will have plenty of company in your misery. About 20,000,000 other Americans will have a cold at the same time you do.

How many colds are you likely to catch this year? Statistics say that adults will come down with 3.44 colds a year. That means three or four, of course.

And the average for children is 5.36, or five or six.

Boys usually have more colds than do girls. And the bigger the family, the more colds each member is apt to have.

Worst age for colds is, as a rule, three. After this the chances for catching cold drop slightly until adulthood. In old age they drop slightly again.

The more money you make, the less likely you are to catch a cold — according to some statistics.

Persons in the lowest income brackets seem to have about 60 per cent more colds than those in the highest brackets. Maybe wealthy people can't buy good health, but they can afford to take better care of themselves.

Farmers are the most susceptible group. If you live in a large city, you probably will have fewer colds than persons who live on farms or in small towns.

I realize that very few of you take a cold seriously. Despite my advice to go to bed and stay there until you feel better, few are going to do it. Your ready response will be:

"Oh, it's just a cold."

Let's put a cold in its proper perspective. The common cold is the most costly ailment in the United States today. Each year Americans spend a total of $500,000,000 to treat colds. Another $420,000,000 is lost in wages. Total expenses in lost time, wages, production and medical bills come to a staggering $5,000,000,000 a year. That, you might say, is cold cash!

Question and Answer

Mrs. V.: What can I do to prevent cramps in my right leg at night?

Answer: Night leg cramps may be caused by a circulatory disturbance. Bed socks, adequate covers and a warm room may help to prevent them. Small doses of quinine at bedtime have been helpful in some cases, as have other medicines which your doctor can prescribe to aid the circulation.

Khrush Not Entirely Free

First of all it is necessary to grasp the essence of the Soviet Universal State of which Russia is a part, perhaps the most important part, but which includes many nations and many political parties existing in countries which are antagonistic to Russia.

In a word, what World War II accomplished was the erection of a universal empire of enormous manpower and strength but containing a variety of states of varying degrees of self-government, bound together by a dogma which is less economic than sociological.

This Soviet Universal State consists of three ideological elements: on the extreme right, tending more and more to float away from the Kremlin's influence, are Revisionists such as Tito and Nasser who could with Nehru, if he were courageous, form a bloc which might overwhelm those who now control the Kremlin.

On the extreme left are the unreconstructed Marxists who accept the leadership of Mao Tse-tung of China. It is important to note that this element is influential in such countries as Poland, Ceylon and Indonesia and has frightened India.

In the center of the Soviet Universal State and dominating it from the Kremlin in Khrushchev's Russia, a curiously governed country with as tight a personal dictatorship as Hitler or Mussolini or Trujillo developed and moving rapidly toward the use of capitalistic devices to develop socialistic processes throughout the world.

Anyone who is familiar with primitive Communism, that is, Bolshevism, finds it increasingly difficult to recognize what the personal dictatorships (cult of personality) of Stalin and Khrushchev, have done to the ideas of Marx and Lenin. Suffice it that they are not recognizable in present day Russia except in their fundamentals which include atheism as the basis for all philosophic and sociological thinking.

It is this Kremlinized Russia which is the enemy of the United States and which we must understand thoroughly if we are not to be outwitted by Khrushchev at any conference. The first essential factor of political conduct which Khrushchev will require of such a conference will be very different from that which Eisenhower or Macmillan will need.

Eisenhower's basic political problem will be how his conduct will affect his country without any regard to his own political future, as he has none. Macmillan must consider Labour Party opposition to him, particularly as war is not popular, the British having had their fill of it. In a word, in what are called democratic countries, public opinion must be taken into account, selfishly or patriotically.

Khrushchev does not face that problem, but he does face another. He dare not ignore the Leftist Deviationists, that is, the Red Chinese. Mao Tse-tung represents orthodox Marxism-Leninism and there are many important Communists throughout the world, even in Soviet Russia, who hold with Mao and not with Khrushchev. It is therefore necessary for the Kremlin boss to produce satisfying victories if he is not to be decapitated or exiled as his predecessors and associates have been.

As an aside, I might mention that of 27 Bolshevik members of the Politburo, that is from those who emerged to leadership out of the original revolution, seven are reported to have died; eight were executed or executed; three were exiled; three disappeared; one committed suicide; the remainder are presumably alive.

Since 1917, there have been only three effective heads of the Communist Party which controls the government: Lenin, Stalin and Khrushchev. Khrushchev and Mikoyan are relatively new figures in the Soviet hierarchy, the former being chosen for the Politburo in 1939, the latter in 1935. No one who was on the Politburo in 1917 is alive today.

Khrushchev and his intimate, Mikoyan, represent an opportunistic, pragmatic program which can go anywhere. No one can prognosticate what opportunism will lead to, particularly as Khrushchev can make uncontrolled decisions and has provided that he can dismiss anyone in Russia.

However, he cannot dismiss Mao or Tito or Nasser and therefore they have established themselves as disturbing factors in his situation. On one or two occasions, Khrushchev came close to attacking Mao's orthodoxy, but he always receded from an overt quarrel with Mao.

In the face of all this, a Summit Conference presents numerous psychological as well as political difficulties. Khrushchev dare not fail; he dare not sacrifice Mao; he dare not leave the conference without giving the impression that he has outwitted Eisenhower and Macmillan. But can he outwit de Gaulle and Adenauer?

Khrush Lives by One Aim: Full Triumph of Communism

Editor's note — Nikita Khrushchev stands for the thing that Soviet communism has stood for all along — world domination. Is there any hope of change? In this last of five articles on Khrushchev, William L. Ryan points out the stark facts.

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
AP Foreign News Analyst
A Communist party hack named Z. T. Serdyuk from Moldavia droned on and on, saying just what was expected of him.

Nikita Khrushchev, tireless talker and dogged listener, hung on every word.

"In view of the ultimate triumph of our party's general line," intoned Serdyuk, "we have all the more evidence of the political bankruptcy of the anti-party group of Malenkov, Kaganovich, Molotov, Bulganin and Shepilov."

Frowning, Khrushchev interrupted. "Shepilov who joined them," he corrected.

It happened last December at a party session when Khrushchev was establishing himself finally as boss. The Moldavian momentarily had strayed from the formula.

When Khrushchev "took the black sheep by the tail," as he put it, and threw them out in mid-1957, a new cliché was born. The big boys who opposed Khrushchev were to be regarded as guilty as sin. Former Foreign Minister Shepilov was not quite so guilty.

This was the Khrushchev mind at work, as dogmatic as Stalin's, conditioned by a lifetime of expressing himself in pre-fabricated phrases. Such incidents throw light on the personality of the man who would face Western statesmen in any summit conference.

Khrushchev's life story shows him clearly to be the prisoner of a rigid, uncompromising doctrine. Khrushchev learned from Lenin, for example, there are two kinds of war—the just and the unjust. The just war defends or advances communism.

To Khrushchev as to all devout disciples of Lenin and Stalin, the terms "Communist party" and "the people" are synonymous. When Khrushchev applies the double standard, one for the U.S.S.R. and one for the West, it is useless to look for logic as Westerners know it. There is only one logic for Khrushchev: The inevitable triumph of communism.

Like Lenin and Stalin before him, Khrushchev has made himself sole arbiter of what is good for the cause of communism at home and abroad. Those who disagreed with him became anti-party wreckers, guilty of half a dozen "isms" from the Communist lexicon of sin.

By these standards, Stalin was right when he resisted Trotsky's impatient demand to regiment farmers. And he was right when he himself brutally accomplished the same thing. Khrushchev was right when he denounced Stalin and encouraged cautious relaxations. He was just as right when he re-established Stalin as a hero and cracked down on the same relaxations, blaming others for costly experiments.

Now Khrushchev once again is a Stalinist. Still feeling he needs to make promises to the public he warns that abundance must not be expected too soon. Like Stalin Khrushchev wants world power first.

He leaves no doubt how he wants to use that power.

"Whether they like it or not," he once blurted out, "the capitalists must die. We'll contribute what we can."

This is a clear challenge for the West to ponder in advance of a summit meeting.

Does all this mean many years of ceaseless cold war? That may depend upon how long Khrushchev lasts at his dizzy height.

Communists know the job of being a Red nation's party boss is gigantic.

He does seem to have enormous energy.

But he may lack the ounce of two years ago, when he snorted to correspondents trying to keep up with one of his rocket-like tours:

"Life is short. Live it. Tired? Of course not. I'm a strong man." Khrushchev will be 65 in two weeks. Doctors have warned him to ease up on liquor and watch his diet. As a result the two-fisted drinker is pretty much on the wagon, and suddenly is intent in making the whole population lay off the stuff.

So Khrushchev may live for years. But his generation of militant Bolshevik veterans is dying out. Khrushchev has neither the power nor the personality to be a Stalin. Opposition, both from die-hard Bolsheviks and the rising generation, is easily detectable. Still, Khrushchev seems intent upon producing a robot population. He is revising marxism and creating new dogma to prepare the country for his version of communism.

He may be miscalculating. The new Soviet generation is not the frightened mass Stalin dominated. Social development, a sense of pride in industrial and scientific achievement, a hint of apology for the backward state of the consumer economy, all are pressures on Khrushchev. Thousands of technocrats, engineers, scientists, professional people and even many party members will likely resist being transformed into robots.

Some day Soviet people may have an abundance of food, clothing, housing and security. Some day the Soviet population may be mature enough to force its leaders to abandon the goal of world domination. If that time comes, the world can hope for lasting peace.

But it's unlikely Nikita Khrushchev will live to see the day.

Fingerprint Record Labeled Important

LONDON, Ohio (AP)—If you're wise, you'll add a set of your fingerprints to your important personal papers.

That is the advice of Hugh L. Leggett, superintendent of the Ohio State Bureau of Criminal Identification and Investigation at London.

The fingerprint remains the nemesis of many robbers, murderers and thieves throughout Ohio—but they can be important, too, in non-criminal matters.

The bureau's annual report shows that it processed 72,260 fingerprint cards in the past year. Forty four per cent of the cards were identified as those of persons with prior arrest records.

It is the hope of all Christians that just before us lies the way of life of which mankind has dreamed; it is the despair of the breakdown of civilization; it is the dawn of brotherhood of man; it is the night of hate and slavery and darkness. ### Dear Abby...

By Abigail VanBuren

Youngster Has Right Idea

DEAR ABBY: My problem is my aunt. She upsets my mother. Every time the phone rings and it's my aunt I know she has some more bad news. The only time she calls my mother is when she has news that somebody died or somebody has cancer. I am only 14 years old but even I know better than to call up with only bad news all the time. Do you think I am old enough to tell my aunt in a courteous way next time I see her that I wish she would call up my mother just once in her life and make her feel good?

FOURTEEN
DEAR FOURTEEN: I don't advise 14-year-olds to criticize their elders, but your aunt could use a little common sense and convey good news occasionally. Perhaps an adult member of your family could make the helpful suggestion.

DEAR ABBY: I have been going with this boy (steady) a long time and we are very much in love. The only thing is he can't control himself. We plan to be married in three years. We hardly ever double-date, which is the trouble. Abby, I want our marriage to have a clean start. He says a boy is different but I'm sure that by denying him I'm right. How can I convince him I am right? I am 16 and he is 20.

CONFUSED
DEAR CONFUSED: He KNOWS you are right. He is only trying to wear down your resistance. Insist on double-dating to reduce the temptation. A 16-year-old girl would be wise to re-evaluate her opinion of a man who encourages her to abandon her moral code. He's selfish, and a selfish suitor makes a poor husband.

DEAR ABBY: I wasted two years of my life going with a no-good louse. There isn't room enough in your column to print all the lowdown tricks he pulled on me. A girl I know (she works in the office I used to work in when I went with him) is now falling for his line, just like I did. I would like to tip her off to what kind of a bum he is, but wonder if you think she would appreciate the information? I hate to make a fool of myself.

EX-CHUMP
DEAR EX: Love is not only blind—it's deaf, by choice. If she is emotionally involved with him, your well-meaning advice would be about as welcome as a skunk at a garden party. She'd regard you as "a woman scorned" so unless you're asked, keep your lip zipped.

For a personal reply, write to ABBY in care of this paper. Enclose a self-addressed, stamped envelope.

1959 Work Stoppage Total Tops '57 Total

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—There were an estimated 350 work stoppages involving 215,000 Ohio workers last year, reports Margaret A. Mahoney, state director of industrial relations. The number of man days lost in these stoppages—3,200,000—was double the figure for 1957, she said. Most of the increase in lost man-hours came in the last quarter of 1958 when 85 strikes began or were in progress, idling about 91,000 workers.

Tigers Ready If Weather Will Permit

Weather permitting, the Circleville Tiger baseball nine travels to Chillicothe today to open the 1959 season.

Early today the weather outlook appeared on the damp side with threatening rain clouds overhead.

If the Tigers do play today, it probably will be Don Rowland on the mound, replacing Joe Adkins who came up with a sore shoulder this week.

Adkins, who strained an arm muscle while chucking a rock at a bird several days ago, probably will be ready for action next week. Next week's schedule lists Chillicothe here Tuesday and a double-header at Athens Saturday.

A PROBABLE starting lineup for today would be Harry Strasser behind the plate, Bill Purcell on first, Terry Dean at second, Cal Ellis at shortstop, Ray Phifer on third, Jim Woods in left, Dick Greenlee in center and Dan Leonhardt, Bob Shadley or Jake Bailey in right.

The mound staff will be bolstered by Duane Dean and Bob Caudill. Coach Dick Fisher's utility men include Brent Bell, a reliable catcher, Bruce Helwegen, Jim Wellington, Rupert Rudd and other promising candidates.

BATTER UP — Circleville Tiger third baseman Ray Phifer prepares to take a hefty cut at the ball as he and his CHS mates get ready for the 1959 campaign here. Phifer, a regular on last year's South Central Ohio League championship squad, holds down the hot corner position for the Tigers. His first taste of action this year will come today at Chillicothe, weather permitting. (Staff Photo)

Walters Is On Jackson Opponent Five

Tommy Walters, outstanding guard for Darby's cage Trojans this season, was named to Lynwood-Jacksontown's All-Opponent team.

Lynwood ended the season as the No. 2 Class A team in the state, losing in the state finals to champion Edgerton.

Jacksontown dropped Darby, 68-62, in the Central District Tournament, but the Trojans pasted the Licking County outfit, 70-66, during regular season play.

Walters, a junior, was a mainstay all season for Coach Ned Reichelderfer's Trojan quint which tied with Scioto for the Pickaway County league and won the county tourney. The scrappy guard was named to the All-Pickaway County five this season after gaining a second team berth as a sophomore.

Other all-opponents named by Jacktown were Al Thrasher of Salem Local, Albert Persons, Licking Heights, Jim Lawter, Maysville, and Bob Grundish of Edgerton's state champions.

First Fishing Report Tagged 'Discouraging'

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The first lake and stream report for 1959, issued for Ohio fishermen, looks discouraging. The weather is the cause. The report, made available by the Wildlife Division of the Ohio Department of Natural Resources, is to be issued each Thursday during the summer and autumn.

The report, by districts, follows:
NORTHWEST — A number of lakes and streams in this area are clear and normal. Water temperatures are somewhat below normal and few fish of any species are being taken.

NORTHEAST — Fishing pressure is below normal in this area because of unsettled weather but some bass, bluegills and suckers are being caught. At this time the best success has come from streams in Erie, Lake, Lorain, Wayne and Stark counties.

EAST CENTRAL & SOUTHEAST — Some bass, bluegills, crappies, catfish and suckers are being caught in a number of waters throughout this district. Burr Oak Lake in Athens County, Clendenen and Tappan in Harrison County and a few of the major streams have produced fairly well.

CENTRAL & SOUTH — Most of the streams in this district are in fair to good fishing condition, though few fish are being caught. Such lakes as Buckeye, Rocky Fork, Jackson, Hoover and Madison are in good fishing condition. Outlook for the coming weekend is fair.

SOUTHWEST — Virtually all waters in this area are good for fishing. The following lakes report clear and normal water: Grant in Brown County, Kiser in Champaign County, Stonelick in Clermont County, Cowan in Clinton County and Indian in Logan County. Several streams in Champaign County report some trout are being taken. Most streams in the district are producing good sucker fishing. Outlook for the coming weekend is fair.

charges a .500 win-loss percentage, a figure the A's haven't reached since 1952. Whether these 77 triumphs would push Kansas City into the first division, Craft doesn't know. But he's willing to take his chances on it.

"There's no doubt in my mind that we're improved," Craft said. "But where we finish depends upon how much the other clubs have improved. Our aim is to hit .500. We've got to reach that percentage before we can talk about first division."

The A's biggest improvement, according to Craft, has been in pitching and on the bench. The A's also appear to have a grand new first baseman in rookie Kent Hadley and are pleased with the fine play of Hal Smith, the converted catcher, at third base. Craft is willing to stack up his regular outfield of Bob Cerv, Roger Maris and Bill Tuttle against any trio in the league. He is satisfied that Frank House and Harry Chitt will give the club ample protection behind the plate.

"Our pitching was quite a question mark last year," Craft said. "This year it should be more stable, more effective. The work of several of our pitchers has been a pleasant surprise. We've gotten help from unexpected quarters... Russ Meyer and Art Houtteman. They've added depth to the staff. Having them come through is like money in the bank."

Craft's big four consists of Bob Grim (7-7), Ralph Terry (11-13), Ned Garver (12-11) and Ray Herbert (8-8). There is a scramble for the fifth starting spot among Jack Urban (8-11), Bud Daley (3-2) and Meyer.

"The team will be a little more competitive this year," said Craft. "The competition for positions is more spirited. We have a number of men who can play several positions. The game is getting to be that way. You've got to be as resourceful as you can. That's what killed us last year. We just had no bench."

The A's regular infield consists of Hadley, Hector Lopez, Joe DeMaestri and Smith.

COORDINATION — Officials of the Circleville Night Softball League and the Circleville High School baseball coaching staff and several players teamed up this week in a concentrated effort to put the Ted Lewis Park diamond in playing condition. Manual labor included raking of the entire diamond. Later 14 tons of sand were spread on the playing field and then rolled into shape. Pictured above taking time out for a few minutes are, from left: Bob Maneely, vice president of the local softball loop, Clyde Derexson, secretary-treasurer of the league, CHS outfielder Dick Greenlee, CHS Coach Dick Fisher, second baseman Terry Dean, pitcher Joe Adkins, coaching assistant, Bob Ransom, outfielder Dan Leonhardt and catcher Brent Bell. ## Rookie Shows Best Indian Form of Year

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) — The Cleveland Indians' best pitching performance of the spring was turned in Thursday by rookie Jim Perry.

The 22-year-old right-hander allowed the Chicago Cubs only three hits in six scoreless innings as the Indians took a 4-2 decision in their exhibition finale here this year. He struck out five batters and walked two.

Perry became the first Cleveland pitcher to hurl six scoreless innings in one game this spring. Left-hander Don Ferrarese had the previous high of five scoreless innings.

Singles by Alvin Dark and Walt Moryn and Cal Neeman's double were the only hits off Perry. He held a 1-0 lead when he left the mound as a result of Minnie Minoso's home run in the first inning.

The Indians scored another run in the seventh against Glen Hobbie when a single by Jim Bolger brought home Tito Francona, who had gone to third on a wild throw.

The Cubs tied the score in the eighth when Tony Taylor hit a double and Earl Averill followed with the Tribe holding a 4-3 edge with a pinch home run.

The Tribe scored two runs in the bottom of the eighth. Jim Piersall drew a walk and Vic Power hit a single through the right side of the infield. Francona followed with a double that scored Piersall and Power.

The Indians and the Cubs finished their spring exhibition series

SPORTS BRIEFS

The National Hockey League's Stanley Cup playoffs had a decided Canadian tinge today with Montreal and Toronto holding the strong hand in the semifinal round.

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Casey Stengel isn't doing too much talking these days about his New York Yankee pitching staff. He doesn't have to — their actions are speaking louder (and possibly clearer) than could his words.

NEW YORK (AP) — "This is great news. I'm a fighter and I want to fight. The more the better."

So said heavyweight champion Floyd Patterson when told that a four-fight program had been lined up for him in the next 19 months.

Logart, Scott To Tangle Again

WASHINGTON (AP) — Isaac Logart still has designs on the world welterweight championship, so he's fully aware of the personal stakes in his 10-round rematch to night with young Charley Scott.

Logart, one of Cuba's more skilled exports to U. S. prizefighting, met Scott in what generally was regarded as a warmup at New York three weeks ago.

Logart, left-hooking veteran of 72 fights, was a 3-1 favorite. What happens? Scott, an unfamiliar 22-year-old Philadelphia, wins by a split decision.

Anyone interested may see what happens this time by turning in Friday night for this nationally televised contest (NBC, 10 p. m. EST) from Capitol Arena.

Race horse trainer Johnny Nerud conditions his yearlings barefooted during the Hialeah season.

Truitt Speaks To Rotarians

Frank Truitt, freshman basketball coach at Ohio State University, spoke to the Circleville Rotary Club at the group's regular noon meeting yesterday in the Elks Home.

Truitt said OSU's 7-7 Big Ten record and 11-11 season cage marks were the result of inexperience and inconsistency. He had much praise for the way the team came back from long losing streaks to even up the marks for the year.

The frosh coach, formerly head mentor at Columbus North, singled out Larry Siegfried as the most valuable player for the Buckeyes. He described the freshman basketball squad as unusually good and said six freshmen probably will make the varsity squad next season.

He declared that fans cannot expect the present freshman team, which includes the fabulous Jerry Lucas, to combine with the varsity holdovers to "go out and pick up the blue chips" in the tough Big Ten, since other teams will be much improved also.

David Cushing, DuPont, was installed as a new club member. He was introduced by Emory Ridlon.

Private Police Force Operates in Cleveland

CLEVELAND (AP)—A private police force goes into operation today in Cleveland's University Circle area. The 14-man force, co-operating with Cleveland Police, will operate around the clock in the area, which has been the scene of several attacks on women in recent months.

Following the luncheon, the candidates will go either to the home of their Jaycee hosts or otherwise relax until they assemble later for the final judging to be conducted before the public at the LHS auditorium.

Amid lavish scenery, representative to the Miss Ohio Pageant will be selected. The fortunate miss will then be crowned Miss Southeastern Ohio.

Each of the finalists will receive an inscribed official Miss America medallion bracelet of sterling silver. The winner will receive among her numerous gifts, a trophy, emblematic of her victory, an all-expense paid trip to the Miss Ohio contest at Wooster and a lovely evening gown.

All girls competing at Mansfield for the Miss Ohio contest are assured of a cash scholarship.

Nagels Purchase Fast Freeze

Mr. and Mrs. Harold R. Nagel, 950 S. Pickaway St., Wednesday purchased the Circleville Fast Freeze plant, 161 Edison Ave., from Mr. and Mrs. Patrick J. Griffin, 161 Edison Ave.

Nagel, 29, has managed Fast Freeze since February 1954. The Griffins purchased Fast Freeze in 1948.

Fast Freeze offers complete processing from the animal to the freezer of pork, beef, lamb and veal. It has supplies for home freezers from meats to fruits and vegetables.

A complete line of freezer containers, bags and boxes is available. Meats and vegetables are available in economy packs for parties, banquets and social affairs.

FAST FREEZE services are offered year round. The plant has 1,100 personal freezing compartments in three different types and sizes plus bulk storage areas.

Nagel was born in Portsmouth and is a 1947 graduate of Portsmouth East Tech High School. He received a degree in Business Administration from Ohio University in 1952.

Nagel was associated with Swift & Co. as a salesman for 18 months before coming here. He is active in civic affairs being secretary of the Circleville Junior Chamber of Commerce, a member of B. P. O. Elks Lodge No. 77 and attends St. Joseph's Catholic Church.

His wife is the former Mary Catherine Green. They have one child, a daughter.

Cleveland Is Held As Wisconsin Escapes

CLEVELAND (AP)—Detectives last night arrested a 33-year-old Cleveland man who escaped with three other Clevelanders from a Wisconsin jail March 20.

Acting on a tip, the officers nabbed Joseph H. Bogan as he strolled down an east side street to keep a date that police knew about.

Bogan and the others sawed their way into a shower room in the Langlaid County jail at Antigo, Wis., and then to freedom. They had been jailed there in connection with a $1,200 store holdup.

Weekly Food Review

If you had your fill of turkey and ham at Easter, switch this weekend to beef or lamb. Both are featured as specials by many grocery stores.

Ham and poultry are still the best buys. But some big food chains have chopped a few cents a pound from prices of chuck roast, rib roast, sirloin tip roast and leg of lamb.

Pork prices are also lower in some cities.

Egg prices are the lowest in months.

Fresh fruits and vegetables are glutting big city markets.

The U.S. Agriculture Department lists these best vegetable buys:

New cabbage from Florida, iceberg lettuce from Arizona, pascal celery from Florida and California, Western carrots bunched or tipped, Western asparagus, bunched broccoli, Eastern potatoes, escarole, collards and kale.

Good buys include Western potatoes, round red potatoes from Florida, storage sweet potatoes from New Jersey, spinach, endives and Michigan hot house rhubarb.

Oranges are a top buy. Grapefruit, pineapples and bananas are plentiful and cheap.

Bosc and anjou pears are classed by market specialists as fairly good buys.

Jury To Hear OMVI Charge

Cases in Circleville Municipal Court today included a motorist who was bound to the Pickaway County Grand Jury on a charge of driving under the influence of intoxicants.

The accusation was against Charles F. Winland, 51, Route 1, Laurelville. Pleading innocent to the charge, his bond was set at $300.

Winland also was fined $100 and costs and sentenced to five days in jail for driving while his operator's license was under revocation. Records indicated that he was convicted of driving under the influence of intoxicants last year in Lancaster. He was arrested here by the sheriff's department.

Acie St. Clair Jr., 37, Hurley, Va., was fined $50 and costs for using a fictitious operator's license and $25 and costs for driving on the wrong side of a divided highway. He was cited by the State Highway Patrol.

Richard Swindler, 28, Piketon, was booked by the State Patrol for speeding at 75 miles per hour in a 50 mile zone. He was fined $25 and costs.

Wallace Tells Teachers of Solon's Work

Circleville Teachers' Assn. met in the high school auditorium after school Thursday.

Ed Wallace, Pickaway County's representative in the state Legislature, spoke to the teachers concerning the problems facing the representatives. He explained the reasons for compromise in the writing and passing of controversial legislation.

Rep. Wallace is a member of three committees: Conservation (of which he is chairman), Legislative and Tax. Although not on the school committee, he spoke briefly of pending school legislation.

Following Wallace's remarks George A. Hartman, superintendent, and Tom Bennett, chairman of the legislative committee of CTA, spoke of legislation now in committee and also commended Wallace on his work in behalf of his constituents.

Preceding Wallace's talk, Steve Brudzinski, president of CTA, reminded the group of pending social affairs. He also urged the teacher's cooperation in the educational meeting and panel discussion sponsored by Monday Club Monday in the high school auditorium.
